FEBRUARY 7, 1925.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

---

Mr. LUCE, from the Committee on the Library, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. J. Res. 342]

The Committee on the Library, to whom was referred the joint resolution (H. J. Res. 342) entitled "A joint resolution to authorize the appointment of an additional commissioner on the United States Lexington-Concord Sesquicentennial Commission," having considered the same, report it back to the House with the recommendation that it be passed. The Lexington-Concord Commission was created by an act approved January 14, 1925, and consists of 11 members. This resolution merely increases the number to 12 members by providing for the appointment of an additional Member of the House of Representatives.
